Translator introduction

All praise is due to Allah; we praise Him and seek His forgiveness.

We seek refuge in Allah from the evils of our souls and the wickedness of our deeds.

He, whom Allah guides, none can misguide him, and he whom He misguides, none can guide him.

I bear witness there is no deity worthy of worship in truth except Allah, alone, without partner.

His is the dominion and His is the praise.

He gives life and causes death, and He is over all things competent. Now then:

I have translated the book before you, entitled (Christian Zionism and its dangers) by (Muhammad Saeed Raslan) because of the many benefits and advantages it contains for the Muslim.

This translation is my own effort. If I do well, it is from Allah and His guidance to me, and if I make a mistake, it is from myself and from Satan.

I ask Allah to make this work of mine purely for Him and to spread the word of truth throughout the entire earth and to teach Muslims who do not speak Arabic their religion that Allah has chosen for them.

The one in need of his Lord’s forgiveness: Omar bin Ahmed Tohamy.

بِسْمِ ٱللَّهِ ٱلرَّحْمَٰنِ ٱلرَّحِيمِ

Praise be to Allah alone, and peace and blessings be upon the one after whom there is no prophet, may Allah bless him and grant him peace.

Now then, one might wonder in bewilderment: What makes the Americans and Westerners ally with the Jews and support them in this way, when it is the Jews who benefit from them, while these supporters gain nothing from them economically, militarily, or otherwise? Why do they support them in this way and stand with them in such perplexing ways?

To understand this, even regarding displacement, which is a principle of a group called "Christian Zionism," we must first understand what "Christian Zionism" "—as it is commonly known—is.

What is Zionism?

Zionism is the movement or ideology that works to establish a national homeland for the Jews in the land of Palestine and its surrounding areas.

This movement aims to gather and unite the Jews and relocate them to Palestine to establish a Jewish state there.

This is Zionism.

(Christian Zionism): A movement comprised of Christian denominations—not Jewish—called Christian Zionism. It includes groups of Christians, mostly Protestants.

They believe in the necessity of gathering Jews from all over the world, relocating them to Palestine, and establishing a state for them there.

Therefore, this Christian Zionist movement believes that establishing a Jewish state in Palestine is a prerequisite for achieving salvation; that is, it is a condition for the coming of the Messiah at the end of times.

Christian Zionism believes that the second coming of Christ is contingent upon the establishment of a Jewish state in Palestine, with Jerusalem as its center and capital. This state would then erect its symbolic Temple, which, they believe, must be built on the ruins of the Al-Aqsa Mosque.

It is understandable that this is a Jewish belief, as they are the ones directly involved and have a vested interest in it. However, it is astonishing that there are Christian sects who hold this belief and strive to achieve this goal!

This is a fruit of Jewish Zionist intrigue; they have infiltrated and succeeded in creating such a movement.

These Judeo-Christian sects believe in the necessity of hastening the coming of the Messiah, as his arrival is imminent. Therefore, they believe it is imperative to expedite the establishment of a Jewish state in Palestine, with Jerusalem as its capital, and the rebuilding of the Temple in preparation for his coming and reception.

This is a doctrinal requirement for them; they believe it wholeheartedly and strive to achieve it by all means.

This does not imply any love for the Jews on the part of this Christian Zionist movement. Rather, they see them merely as tools to achieve their religious and worldly interests. They believe that because of the Jews' gathering in Palestine, the Messiah will come, joined by Christians, at a time when the time is ripe for the conversion of those Jews who have not yet been killed. Ultimately, they threaten the Jews with death upon the Messiah's return, except for those who convert to Christianity, in the great battle that will take place—Armageddon. This is their objection.

It was also said in defining (Christian Zionism) - and the correct term is Christianity - that it is a nationalist movement working for the return of the Jewish people to Palestine and Jewish sovereignty over the land. Therefore, Christian Zionists obligate themselves to defend the Jews and their state - Israel - and this defense includes supporting the Jews with money and weapons - this is what America and the West do - and opposing everyone who is hostile to or criticizes the Jewish state.

Therefore, this ideology has also been defined, in short, as: Christian Zionism: Christian support for Jewish Zionism.

Walter Regens, Secretary General of the International Christian Embassy Jerusalem, defines it as: any Christian who supports the Zionist goal of the State of Israel, its army, government, and culture, thus joining this movement.

Christian Zionism is a set of beliefs held by Christian denominations that support the establishment of a Jewish nation-state in Palestine as a right of the Jewish people.

Among the most important of these beliefs or myths are: the Chosen People, the Covenant given by God to the descendants of Jacob, and the Millennium, when Christ returns after the rebuilding of the Third Temple, ushering in a thousand years of happiness for the world—a term they use to describe the Millennium.

(Christian Zionism): A set of Zionist beliefs prevalent among Christians, particularly among the leaders and followers of Protestant churches that aim to support the establishment of a Jewish state in Palestine as a historical and religious right of the Jews. This support is offered directly and indirectly, based on the premise that the return of the Jews to the Promised Land of Palestine is proof of the Torah's truth, the fulfillment of time, and the Second Coming of Christ.

It is not only the Jews who are waging an ideological war; these Christians are also fighting an ideological war to establish a Jewish state in Palestine and rebuild the Temple for the return of Christ.

Christian Zionist doctrines and principles

Therefore, the most important teachings and principles upon which Christian Zionism is based are as follows:

- The Jews are a chosen people. This chosen people was given Palestine by God as a gift and a right!
- Among their principles: the infallibility of the Holybook, especially the Old Testament, and the necessity of interpreting it literally.
- The Messiah will come when the Jews gather in Palestine to rule the world from there for a thousand years, which is the Millennium! They are fighting for this.
- Also among the principles of Christian Zionism: gathering all Jews in Palestine and helping to establish a state there, and that Jerusalem is the eternal capital of Israel until the Messiah comes.
- Building a Third Temple on the ruins of the Al-Aqsa Mosque is one of their beliefs.
- All governments must recognize Israel to support it internationally and must oppose any boycott against it.
- All countries must move their embassies to Jerusalem.

These are their beliefs, and this group is not a recent phenomenon, nor is it ten or a hundred years old; it has a long history.

- All governments and peoples must stop arming Israel's enemies.
- All governments must prevent any opposition to Israel, and they must not host any individual or group that threatens Israel's security. They must label such individuals or groups as terrorists.
- Encouraging the resettlement of Palestinian refugees in Arab countries.

This statement is not new, nor was it written at the beginning of the crisis. It has been around for decades, and it is one of the principles of Christian Zionism: encouraging the resettlement of Palestinian refugees in Arab countries.

This is what the West is striving for now. America is pursuing this because it is a core tenet of these Christian Zionists.

God will hold the Christian Zionists and their governments accountable for the extent of their protection and support of the Jewish state.

These are the most important features of Christian Zionism, both past and present.

The war against Arabs and Muslims is an ideological war

Consider how this band of misguided Jews has reached such a point that governments follow them as if they were mere tools, and the West has become a true tool of the Jews, manipulated as they please with such beliefs upon which they operate.

Our war is a war of faith, but my people, generally speaking—except for those upon whom my Lord has bestowed His mercy—do not understand!

This is extremely dangerous because faith can only be countered with faith. They are waging a war of faith against the Arabs and Muslims. We want the promise of God that He made to Abraham and his descendants regarding this land. That is why they carried weapons in one hand and the Torah in the other as they fought. But the Muslims do not want to believe this at all, let alone act upon it, let alone act according to it.

So we ask Allah Almighty to enlighten us to the truth of matters and to have mercy on us in this world and the Hereafter.

May Allah's peace and blessings be upon our Prophet Muhammad, and upon his family and all his companions.
